HOW TO READ THE SYLLABUS

Read the course syllabus carefully.

Each course has its own rules about prerequisites, attendance, and assessments.

For most courses, the grade is based on the results of the final examination only.

However, other rules may apply. For example, you may be required to

- participate actively in class and submit homework and assignments;
- undertake a research project or write a report with other students;
- etc.

The content of the examination may vary depending on your attendance record.

Please remember that attendance is essential for the successful completion of your examinations.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR 2025-2026

First Semester
Teaching Period	22 Sept – 19 Dec 2025
Christmas holidays	20 Dec – 6 Jan 2026
Winter exam session	7 Jan – 18 Feb 2026

Second Semester
Teaching Period	23 Feb – 29 May 2026
Easter holidays	2 – 7 April 2026
Summer exam session	3 Jun – 10 Jul 2026

No classes on 1 May

Three or two exam dates (appello) in each session.

You can take the exam on any appello.

If you don't pass the exam, you can retake it once or twice, depending on the number of exam dates in the session.

You must take the exam within your exchange period!

Courses Timetable

COURSES TIMETABLE

The updated lectures timetable can be consulted, by course and by lecturer, via the University's Web Agenda, at the following link.

Information on classrooms and facilities can be found here.

Syllabus and information about each single course can be found here.

What is a course syllabus? Course syllabuses are documents drawn up by lecturers that contain descriptions of the content, learning objectives, examination methods, reference books and important information relating to the individual subjects.

ALTRI AVVISI

LANGUAGE SKILLS

The teaching language is Italian. Level B1 is recommended, but no certificate is required.

The Bachelor's programmes in Business and Management and in Economics and Financial Markets, as well as the Master's programme in Environmental Economics, are taught in English.

At the beginning of every term, the University offers free Italian language courses for incoming students.

The Italian Erasmus extra-curricular courses do not give the right to receive marks, but only credits (6 ECTS), which are awarded to the student after he/she has passed the final test of the course. No credits will be awarded if the student does not take the final exam.

LETTER OF ARRIVAL

After your arrival in Trieste

Ask the International Mobility Office to issue your letter of arrival incoming.students@amm.units.it

Your institutional email address and student ID will be assigned by the Online Student Services when you've received your arrival letter. Send your arrival letter and a scan of your ID/passport to helpesse3@amm.units.it

We strongly recommend that you have your Learning Agreement signed by you, your sending university academic coordinator and your Italian academic coordinator before you arrive in Trieste.

LEARNING AGREEMENT – DURING THE MOBILITY

You can change your learning agreement only once within 1 month of your arrival at UniTS

No later than one month after your arrival in Trieste, you must send any changes to your Learning Agreement, with all the necessary signatures, to the International Mobility Service (incoming.students@amm.units.it).

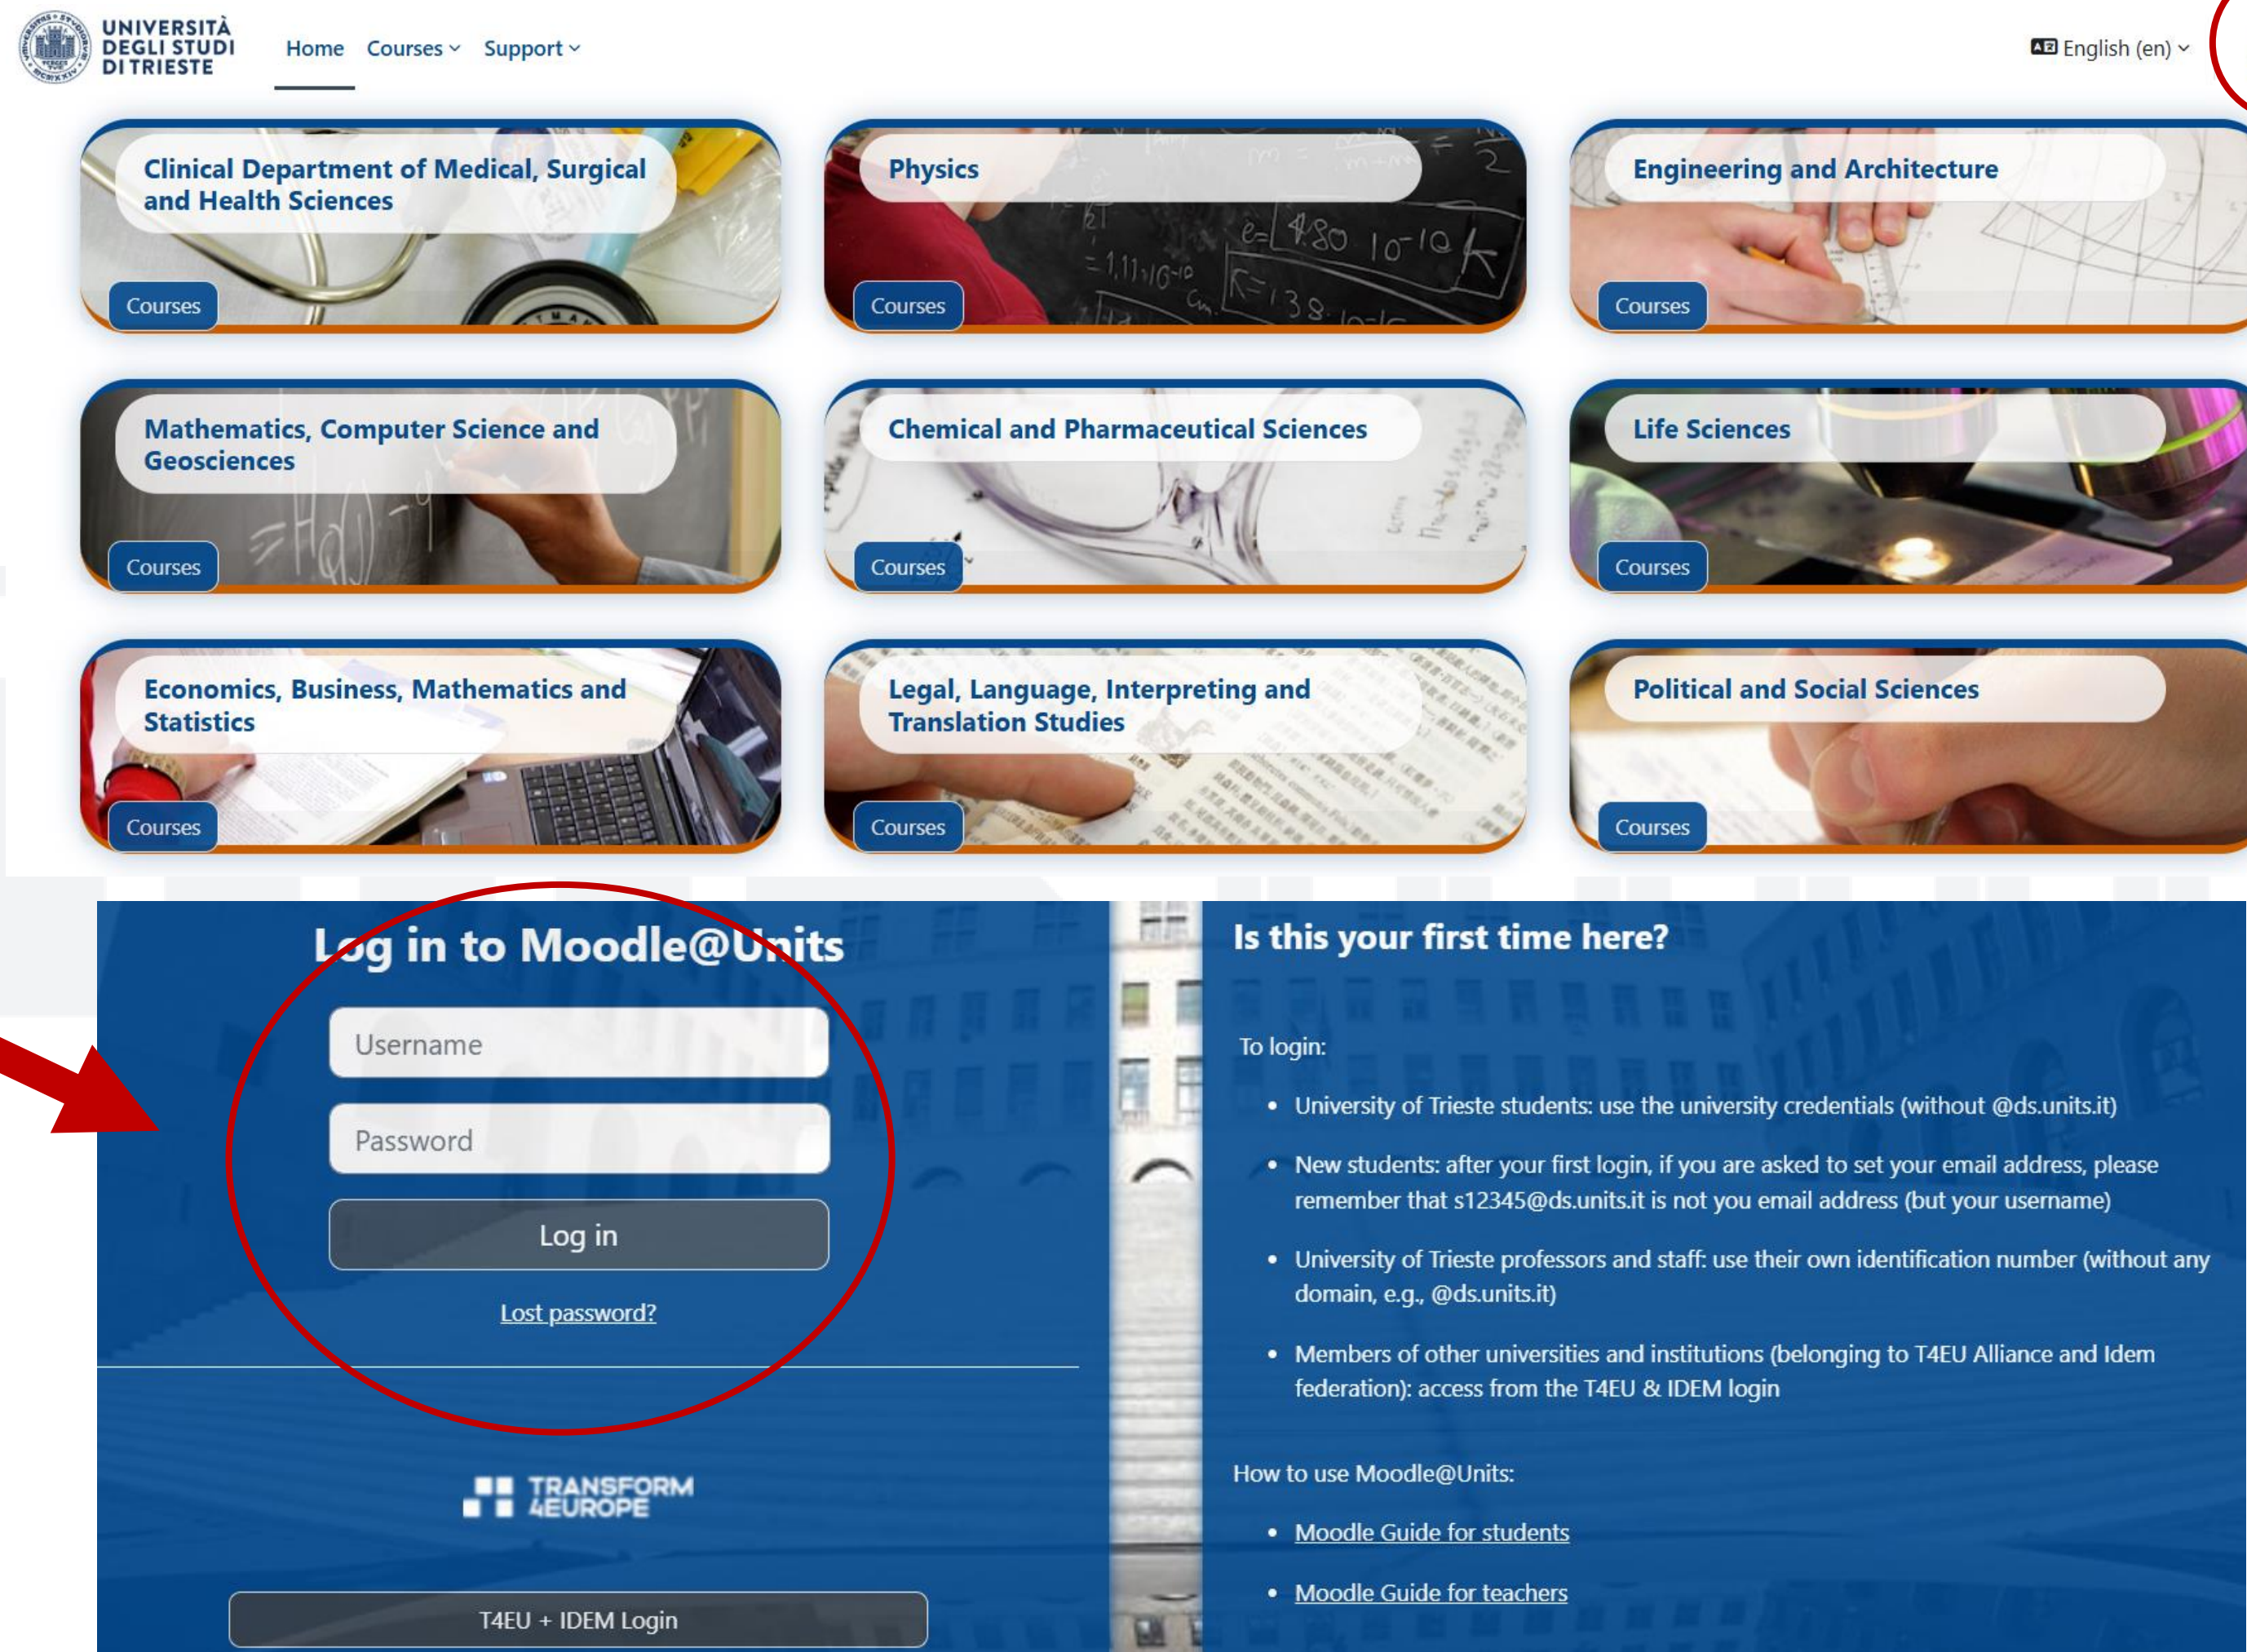

This is the link to the form that you should use: https://www2.units.it/internationalia/it/erasmusplus-in/?file=stu_studio.html&cod=2023

E-LEARNING PLATFORMS: MOODLE AND TEAMS

- Moodle is the platform where professors upload course materials.
- You will need a username and password to log in to Moodle.
- Course login codes are provided by professors
- Microsoft Teams is the platform where you can find the recordings of the lectures (and sometimes the course materials as well).
- Find additional details at the following link: <https://www.units.it/studenti/didattica-digitale>

STUDY AND BREAK ROOMS

Looking for a place to study?
Or a cozy corner to take a break?

UniTs has many study rooms and some breakout rooms (the entire D building is dedicated to the Department of Economics, but students can study in any building on campus).

Information on how to access the canteens is available from the International Mobility Service.

and State libraries!

EXAMS: WHEN?

At DEAMS you have several opportunities (appelli) to take the final exam of each course:

- 3 appelli during the examination session of the semester in which the course is held;
- 2 during the examination session of the following term;
- 1 appello in September.

Check the academic calendar to find out when your exams are and check that they fall within your period of study in Trieste.

You can choose on which appello you want to take the exam, and if you fail you can retake the exam on another appello.

The same methods of marking will apply to all the appelli.

EXAMS: HOW?

Exams must be taken in person.

To take an appello, you must register online.

Log on to <https://esse3.units.it/Home.do>;

1. Go to Menu > Esami > Prenotazione appelli;
2. All the appelli scheduled for your courses will appear.
Please note that the dates are published at the end of the course.
3. If a blue book appears, you can click on it to open the appello page and register. If you see a red icon, you will have to wait for the applications to open.

ARE YOU IN NEED OF AN EXTENSION TO YOUR STUDY PERIOD IN TRIESTE?

You can request an extension before the end of your exchange period.

The extension must be approved by your Italian coordinator, confirmed by your sending university and then sent to the International Mobility Service (incoming.students@amm.units.it).

! Failure to extend: Examinations taken after the normal expiry date will not appear on your Transcript of Records.

LEAVING TRIESTE

Once you have completed your exams, contact the International Mobility Office (incoming.students@amm.units.it) to have your certificate of departure signed.

Don't ask it to your Italian coordinator!

Your online profile will be frozen, and the Transcript of Records will be sent to you and your home university.

ENJOY YOUR EXCHANGE!
